Rev.Dr.N.A. Seagle Work of the Season

Ceremony Takes Place in the New York Home for Destitute Church of Which Bridegroom Is Rector.

Miss Marie Louise Feckham, daughthe late Mr. and Mrs. Walton M. Peckham of this city, was mar-ried to the Rev. Dr. Nathan A. Seagle, rector of St. Stephen's Church, Sixty-menth street, near Broadway, by Bishop Charles Sunner Burch of the Episc pal Diocese of New York. The ceremony nessed by relatives of the couple and nessed by relatives of the couple and many of the parishioners.

Since the death of her parents the bride has lived with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Eliot Gund.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Shattuck are to sail from New York November 1 for to sail from New York November 1

The marriage of Mrs. Lillian Schenck to Mr. William G. Mennen of Newark, took place yesterday at her home, 220 West Ninety-eighth street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Paul B. Scherer, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Holy Trinity, and was witnessed by a few relatives. The bride was attended by her young daughter, Dorothy Knoepe, and the best man was Mr. Henry P. Williams. Mr. and Mrs. Mennen will live at 370 Ridge street, Newark.

M'LAUGHLIN-DOUGHERTY.

Miss Margaret A. Dougherty, sister of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Meenan of 270 Riverside Drive, was married yesterday to Mr. Edward McLaughlin of Chicago, in the Church of St. Gregory the Great. The bride's niece. Miss Angela Meeran was maid of honor, and her nephew. Eugene Meenan, was best man. Four other nephews, John J. Meenan, Daniel A. Meenan, James A. Meenan and Edward V. Meenan were the ushers.

W. Hanks, Jr. of Noroton, Conn., which will take place in the Church of the Heavenly Rest on November 6. Miss Alice De Buys will be her sister's maid of honor and Mrs. John F., Parlerson matron of honor. The other attendants will be Mrs. Mason B. Starring and Mrs. Herry Brady and Miss Martha von Goeben, who also will be members of the bridai party; Miss Ruth Becker and Mrs. Edward Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. David Young Swainson of 194 Riverside Drive have sent out invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marjorie Lee Swainson, to Mr. Samuel Ba'rent Van Wyck of Mr. Samuel Ba'r

Miss Evelyn Gough, daughter of Mr. nd Mrs. Edward C. Gough, and Mr. loss Mattos Bacon, both of Mount Ver-on, were married yesterday in the ome of the bride's parents by the Rev.

AND MATTER LINGS WEEDS.

COMMANDER LINGS WEEDS.

COMMA

Miss M. L. Peckham Rummage Sale at Becomes Bride of Lenox Last Charity

Bilad One of Beneficiaries of Enterprise.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALE. Green LENOX, Mass., Oct. 21.—The last charatty enterprise of the season in Lenox Phil Hall to-day for the benefit of the Berkshire Home for Crippled Children and

The performance of Paylowa and her Ballet Russe at the Manhattan Opera House to-night will be for the benefit of the Camp Fire Girls, whose national headquarters are at 31 East Seventeenth street. Among the box holders are Henry Harriman, Prof. and Mrs. John E. Henry Harriman, Prof. and Mrs. John Dyneley Prince, Mrs. Oliver Harriman, Mrs. Henry P. Loomis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farnsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farnsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Colgate Hoyt, Mrs. Charles A. Childs, the Rev. and Mrs. Robert S. Wood, Mrs. Adolf Ladenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Gustavus T. Kirby, Mrs. A. Clark Hunt. Mrs. Samuel Streit, Mrs. Maud Ballington Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Otto H. Cutler, Mrs. Arthur Loomis, Dr. and Mrs. Myron Scudder, Mr. and Mrs. A. Maclay Pentz, Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Doheny and Mr. Adolph Lewisohn. and Mr. Adolph Lewisohn.

SOCIAL NOTES.

Miss Beatrice Sillo gave a tea and linen shower Wednesday in her home, 353 West Fifty-seventh street, for Miss Edna Wernecke, who will be married next month to Mr. Carl von Goeben. Miss Sillo will be a bridesmaid. The guests included Miss Marguerite Wernecke Mrs. Harry de Brun Mrs. Harry

J. M. Gidditta & Cu.

Feature today

a special showing of Natural Hudson Sable Skins which can be mounted to individual order into one or two skin scarfs. so fashionable at the present time for wear with the Tailored Suit or Frock-

The extremely low price at which we are offering these skins today renders them doubly attractive.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney will leave lurope to-morrow for New York, and n her arrival here will go to Westbury.

Mrs. William Douglas Sloane will clos

Miss Frances Ogden Jones will return from New London, Conn., on November 3 and occupy an apartment at the Se-ville Hotel.

Prince Lubomirski, Minister of Po-land, and Princess Lubomirska went to Princeton, N. J., yesterday, where the Minister delivered an address before the Politi Club of Princeton University, They will go to New York before returning to a tea yesterday at Soldiers' Home for Major-Gen. and Mrs. W. W. Wothers-poon, who are their guests. Mrs. Bliss, wife of the governor of the Soldiers' Home; Mrs. Ernest Garlington and Mrs. Merritt Ireland received with the hos-

Mrs. McKenna Pultz has returned to Washington and joined her parents, Justice and Mrs. McKenna, for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Rutherford have leased Graystone, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Armat, overlooking Rock Creek Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leiter are ex-ected in Washington from California

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Govin of New York have taken for the season the house in Massachusetts avenue formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Edward N. Hurley.

RESORT NOTES. NEWPORT.

Mrs. Vanderbilt returned to the Breakers yesterday, joining her daugh-ter, the Countess Szchenyi, who had preceded her after a two weeks' stay in the Berkshires. Both will remain for the late season before returning to New Verb ber of the colonists followed the players over the course.

Mrs. William Dupont gave a dinner in the Homestead last night for Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Hedstrom, Mrs. Robert W. Locke, Mrs. S. M. Nicholas and Mrs. William Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. James Henry McCann gave a dinner last night for the Baron of the Raron of gave a dinner last night for the Baron ries and Baronesa Rosenkratz, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Donahue, Mrs. William H. St. Mr. monds, Miss Agnes Gill and Mr. William H. Hunter.

NOW READY

A brilliant picture of the gambling at Monte Carlo. By probably the greatest novelest of the day.

BLASCO IBANEZ The Enemies of Women

$2.15 At all bookstores, E. P. DUTTON & CO., 681 5th Ave., N. Y.

Tells the Married Experts Answer No _ At IN STORMY SESSION Least Not on Oct. 21.

English Feminist in First American Lecture on 'Love and Marriage."

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew W. Rose of Greenwich, Conn., are at the Plaza. Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson Curtin of Philadelphia and Mr. and Mrs. James Barlow Cullum of Pittsburg also are evening, talked so wittily and pithily seventy times seventy. Stored up venom leads to unhappiness.

"If you both have any irritation over habits of the other, make out a list of those qualities, have a family conference and exchange criticisms. Maybe you don't like your wife in blue; maybe she doesn't like you to sing in the bath. You may both deny these charges, but little by little you will find yourselves giving up the offending traits."

In answering questions, which he invited the audience to ask afterward, he defined love as "the maximum physical, intellectual and æsthetic attraction." Frank Crowninshield, editor of Vanity Fair, in introducing the author, said that as soon as a man started to study that as soon as a man started to study

Shows Musical Feeling, Plays Well, but Misses Fire.

Mme. Cecile de Horvath, formerly known to local music lovers as Miss Cecile Ayres, gave a plano recital yester-day afternoon in Aeolian Hall. Her programme contained Cesar Franck's regramme contained to the inevitable group of Chopin pieces, and some other examples of plane composition. Mrm. de Horvath is one of those planists who disappoint because they approach so near to their own ideals without quite reaching them.

Her performance of the Franck music, for instance, showed understanding and a certain degree of musical feeling. Technically it was marred by a few sellps, but the tone was good, the dynamic sperial season at the Shubert Garrick product of the supporters of the supporters of the supporters of the supporters of the support of its adversaries can only be construed as a traitorous act; now, in the construction of the support of its adversaries can only be construed as a traitorous act; now, in the construction of the support of its adversaries can only be construed as a traitorous act; now, in the construction of the support of its adversaries can only be construed as a traitorous act; now, in the construction of the support of its adversaries can only be construed as a traitorous act; now, in the construction of the support of its adversaries can only be construed as a traitorous act; now, in the construction of the support of its adversaries can only be construed as a traitorous act; now, in the construction of the support of its adversaries can only be construed as a traitorous act; now, in the construction of the support of its adversaries can only be construed as a traitorous act; now, in the construction of the support of its adversaries can only be construed as a traitorous act; now, in the construction of the support of its adversaries of the bemocratic party and the support of its adversaries of the support of its adversaries can only be construed as a traitorous act; now, in the construction of the support of its adversaries can only be construed as a traitorous act; now, in the construction of the support of its adversaries can only be construed as a traitorous act; now, in the construction of the support of its adversaries can only be construed as a traitorous act

To raise funds for the needs of the

The finals in the golf tournament for women players held during the week on the homestead course were played yesterday, with Mrs. Philip K. Rhinelander defeating Mrs. Herbert L. Fenner in the championship flight, 1 up in 19 holes. In the second eight Miss Marjorie Langdon defeated Miss Ruth Harrison, 1 up in 20 holes. In the third eight Mrs. William M. Mclivaine defeated Mrs. Timothy S. Goodman, 1 up in 19 holes. The matches were closely played, and a number of the colonists followed the players over the course.

Mrs. William Dunont gave a dinner in

WITH THE PLAYGOERS.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rhinelander, 2d, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rhinelander, 2d. took a party to the Forty-fourth Street Theatre last night to see "Way Down East." Their guests included Miss Adrienne Iselin. Others in the audience were Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon B. Conger, Mr. and Mrs. William Willoughby Sharp, Mr. Augustus Howard Ivins Miss Edith Ivins, Dr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Thomson and Major and Mrs. Theron R. Strong.

DANCES AT THE BILTMORE.

A series of afternoon dances, with Mrs. Anna Mae White as hostess, will begin at the Biltmore Hotel to-morrow afternoon, with dancing from 3 to 7 o'clock. The dances will be given there-after on the third Saturday of each month.

His most inviting intimacy and his most interesting angle.

PIRIE MACDONALD Photographer-of-Men. - 576 FIFTH AV (COR 47 TH ST.

great town almost to sleep yesterday by a thermometrical clout with his poga-moggan, the Sioux blackjack. On no other October 21 in the official records of nearly fifty years has the mercury climbed to 77, the point it reached at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. There was some aerial refreshment up in the tower several flights above Chief Forecaster Scarr, the anemometer actually whirling Scarr, the anemometer actually whirling now and then at the rate of four en miles an hour. But the air on the levels Barlow Cullum of Pittsburg also are there.

Mrs. Henry Fletcher Godfrey and Miss Marlon Tiffany have returned from White Sulphur Springs.

Mrs. John Clinton Gray, who is convalescing from a long illness, will leave Memoratory for Hot Springs, Va., next Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Roosevelt, Jr., who were married last week, are stopping at the Hotel Ambassador, Atlantic City.

Mrs. Ogden*Goelet will remain in Europe until late in the season.

Mrs. Charles Elliot Warren will return from Lawrence, L. I., on November 15.

Mr. and Mrs. John Aspegren, who

Mr. and Mrs. John Aspegren, who

Barlow Cullum of Pittsburg also are evening, talked so wittily and pithily on "Love and Marriage" that he kept his capacity audience constantly chortling and appeared to bring husbands and wite the season feel somewhat like real summer. A haze helped to sive the linpression of drowiness that marks to bear in mind, always that marriage means a constant courtship even after the wedding ceremony.

"Marriage is the natural state of man," he said, "It is the only insurance for a hypocrite and at liar. Nevertheless marriage is a delicate machine that requires a technique and an art of its own to run it satisfactorily. The most important thing for a husband and wife to remember is that marriage is a continual courtship.

Mr. and Mrs. John Aspegren, who

Significant Control of the control o think constantly how to give a fuller life to the other.

"When a man marries he believes it's itime to settle down. When a woman marries she believes it's time to have sorship of the film is no less dangerous all ivelier time. But both must eschew adventure. And one must forgive till seventy times seventy. Stored up venom leads to unhappiness.

"If you both have any irritation over habits of the other, make out a list of those qualities, have a family conference and exchange criticisms. Maybe you don't like your wife in blue; maybe and the direction of Mayor William J. Wallin of Yonkers. This report was adopted by the New York State Mayors. The report concludes that "legalized censorship of the press or the stage, for it places a ban upon ideas. The indecent, improper and immoral film can be eradicated by the same methods books or plays."

A dinner was given last evening at the direction of Mayor William J. Wallin of Yonkers. This report was adopted by the New York State Mayors. "It was unanimated to the film is no less dangerous than a censorship of the press or the stage, for it places a ban upon ideas. The indecent, improper and immoral film can be eradicated by the same methods books or plays."

A dinner was given last evening at which executives of various film companies met the Mayors. Gabriel Hess, mous.

Picture Industry; Rex Beach of the Authors League of America and D. W.

The Secretary of Labor has made an exception in the case of Miss Joyce Cole, 15 years old, a dancer in the company of Mme. Paylowa, and the girl polymers of the company of Mme. was released yesterday from Ellis Island on a $1,000 bond. The young dancer was detained because she w unaccompanied by a relative. She to tour this country twelve months with Mme. Pavlowa.

at the Hippodrome to see "Good Times."

WOMAN'S FORUM TO MEET.

The Woman's Forum, of which Miss Helen Varick Boswell is president, will hold its first meeting of the season at 11 o'clock this morning in the Music.

But It will have no such effect."

MRS. B. M. CROKER D. AD.

English Novelist Was Author of Newark, N. J.; above reward will be paid and no questions asked for return or for Many Romances.

Wearing Apparel.

Wearing Apparel. hold its first meeting of the season at 11 o'clock this morning in the Music Room of the Hotel Biltmore. This will be a "get together" meeting. Miss Mary Wood will speak on "The Legislative Outlook" and Mrs. Claudia Quigley Murphy will have as her topic "The Token of Our Civilization."

NOTES OF TRE THEATRES.

John E. Hazzard, principal comedian of 'The Night Boat" at the Liberty Theatre, is writing a campaign farce tentatively

EDGAR S. SLAWSON.

LOST—Large green box from automobile, between 13th and Amsterdam av. and Amsterdam av. and Amsterdam av. and Hotel two ladies for coats; suitable reward. M 356

Munster Fusiliers, and daughter of the late Rev. William Sheppard.

LOST—Brown welf scarf, Lexington av. subween 15th and 23d sts.; liberal reward. L. DIST—Brown welf scarf, Lexington av. subween 15th and 23d sts.; liberal reward. L. DIST—On Oct. 16 between 55th st. and Amsterdam av. and between 15th st. and Amsterdam av. and between 15th st. and Amsterdam av. and serial suitable reward. M 356

The Night Boat" at the Liberty Theatre, is writing a campaign farce tentatively serial suitable reward. M 356

EDGAR S. SLAWSON.

John E. Hazzard, principal comedian of The Night Boat" at the Liberty Theatre, e writing a campaign farce tentatively alled "The Candidate."

The Army football team will attend the light Theatre to see Fred Stone in "Tip op" after the Army-Navy game on No-ember 27.

n producing field, dominal Glennon, commandant of the ird Navai District, was the host last ning at Good Times in the Hippo-me to the captain, officers and crew-the Bradilian battleship Minaes Geraes, in the harbor.

mow in the harbor.

Morris Gest received a cablegram yesterday from Oscar Asche announcing that when 'Mecca.' is produced in London the leading fermine role now being taken at the Century Theatre by Gladys Hanson will be juayed by Lilly Brayton (Mrs. Oscar Asche).

Directors and officers or the Irving National Beak in Washington, D. C., to the number of 236 will be the guests of the Irving National Bank of New York to night at the Ziegfeld 'Midnight Frolle.'' was used with success in fighting Ger man submarines. He was the owner of the Hoyt electrical instrument works.

THOMAS BIRKETT.

OTAWA, Oct. 21—Thomas Birkett, former Mayor of Ottawa, and once number of the House of Commons, died here to-day, 76 years ols.

Found.

Found.

Found.

Found.

Found.

Found training heward if returned to owner any morning beward if returned to owner any morning to any morning beward if returned to owner any morning to any morning the ward if returned to owner any morning to any morning the ward if returned to owner any morning to any the supplement of the Hoyt electrical instrument works.

Lost - Pound to any the supplement works.

Lost - Pound to only the to-da any reward. Mrs.

Found.

Found.

Found.

Found.

Found.

Found.

Ward if returned to owner any morning tween of any difference of any morning tween of any difference of any difference of any morning tween of any difference of

Continued from First Page.

The resolution follows:
"Whereas Mrs. John Sherwin Crosby is a member of the Women's Democratic Club because of her professed belief in the principles of the Democratic party;

Among those attending the are Mayor Clifford B, Wilson, Bridge port; Lieut, Richard Gamble, representing Mayor Joseph H, Gainer of Providence; Mayor William T, Gleason of Brockton, Mayor Peter F, Sullivan and James H, Power of Worcester.

LETS IN PAVLOWA DANCER,
The Secretary of Labor has made an exception in the case of Miss Joyce an exception in the case of Miss Joyce and the Committee, the Committee of the Case of the Case of Miss Joyce and the C of the party whose principles are utterly opposed to those of her professed bellef; and,

"Whereas such desertion from the ranks of the supporters of the standard bearers of the Democratic party and the support of its adversaries can only be construed as a traitorous act; now, therefore,
"Pa it resolved. That for such dislove."

EDGAR S. SLAWSON.

Edgar S. Slawson, for twenty years a detective sergeant in the New York Police Department, died yesterday in his home, 4 North Sixth avenue, Mount Vernon, at the age of 72. He served under Thomas Byrnes when the Inspector established the dead line. Mr. Slawson worked in the Wall street district and through his efforts many crooks were captured. Mr. Slawson had been president of the Fourth Ward Republican Association of Mount Vernon for ten years. He also had been Supervisor from that ward.

DR. ADRIAN H. HOYT.

CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 21.—Dr. Adrian H. Hoyt, a physician, inventor and manufacturer, died to-day at his home

Edgar S. Slawson, for twenty years a very folice Department, died yesterday in the New York Madison Square 5702.

LOST—Beaver searf in Black and White taxi, Saturday night; reward. Phone Madison Square 5702.

LOST—Beaver searf in Black and White taxi, Saturday night; reward. Phone Madison Square 5702.

LOST—Beaver searf in the New York Madison Square 5702.

LOST—Beaver searf in Black and White taxi, Saturday night; reward. Phone Madison Square 5702.

LOST—Beaver searf in the New York Madison Square 5702.

LOST—Beaver searf in Black and White taxi, Saturday night; reward. Phone Madison Square 5702.

LOST—Beaver searf in Black and White taxi, Saturday night; reward. Phone Madison Square 5702.

LOST—Beaver searf in the New York Madison Square 5702.

LOST—Beaver searf in Black and White taxi, Saturday night; reward. Phone Madison Square 5702.

LOST—Beaver searf in Black and White taxi, Saturday night; reward. Phone Madison Square 5702.

LOST—Beaver searf in Black and White taxi, Saturday night; reward. Phone Madison Square 5702.

LOST—Beaver searf in the Visit State Square 5702.

LOST—Beaver searf in Black and White taxi, Saturday night; reward. Phone Madison Square 5702.

LOST—Beaver searf in Black and White taxi, Saturday night; reward. Phone Madison Square 5702.

LOST—Beaver searf in the Visit State Square 5702.

LOST—Beaver searf in Black and White taxi, Saturday night; reward. Transport of the Army-Navy game on November 27.

Twenty-five British naval officers and seamen en route to the naval station in Bermen en route to the naval station in Bermeda last night saw William Hodge in The Grest of Honor." They were the guests of Mrs. H. A. Rainbird, chairman of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the British Great War Veterans of America.

Edward Bowes, managing director of the Capitol Theatre, announces that a real miniature circus will be presented thereous will be presented thereous will be presented the feat of the Fourth Ward Republican Association of Mount Vernon for ten years. He also had been Supervisor from that is ward.

Box Adrian H. Hoyt.

DR. Adrian H. Hoyt.

Concord, N. H. Oct. 21.—Dr. Adrian H. Hoyt, a physician, inventor and vertex and control of the control of manufacturer, died to-day at his home here. Dr. Hoyt perfected a device for measuring electrical current and a timing device for deep sea bombs which was used with success in fighting German submarines. He was the owner of the Hoyt electrical instrument works.

THOMAS BIRKETT.

LOST—On Menday, October 18, in East dist st., between 1 and 4 ordick, male Pokings and it was markings. Liberal research to owner any morning between 9 and 12:20 o'clock, at 218 East 61st (aly); child's pet dog.

LOST—Female Boston terrier, 13 years old, vicinity 13th et.-lid av.; reward. Mrs. MARTIN 182 E. 11th.

Cats, Dogs, &c.

W. L. George, Writer, DID YOU EVER SEE SUCH EXPEL MRS. CROSBY Z. R. BROCKWAY, NOTED of processes for the manufacture of tetrachloride of tin and carbon tetrachloride, and was the first to manu-Resigned From Elmira Post ELMIRA, Oct. 21.—Zebulon Reed Brockway, for fifty years a well known penologist and for almost half that period superintendent of the New York State Reformatory, died here to-night, where he had been living in retirement for several years. He was 93 years old.

Mr. Brockway devoted his life to a study of criminals, and the Elmira Reformatory was largely his own creation. When 21 years jold he took a clerkship at Age of 73.

LOST AND FOUND.

diectro-chemical industries.

Mr. Acker was graduated from Wabash College and Cornell University, and for several years was an electrical engineer in Chicago. He was a member of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, Chemists' Club of this city, the Society of Chemical Industry. Society formatory was largely his own cleation. When 21 years old he took a clerkship in the Connecticut State Prison and was active in his chosen field until at the age of 73 he resigned from the superintendency of the Elmira Reformatory.

During the early 50's a metropolitan newspaper gave wide publicity to the disciplinary methods then in operation at Elmira, declaring that "paddiling" and corrective methods in use were grave abuses. After a committee representing the State Board of Charities investigated affairs at Elmira Gov. Roswell P. Flower appointed a commission to delve into the abuses alleged to be flourishing under the Brockway regime.

21, 1920.

SEAGLE-PECKHAM.—On Thursday, October 21, at St. Stephen's Church by the Rt. Rev. Charles Sumner Burch, D. D., Bishop of New York, Maris Louiso, Caughter of the late Walten M. Peckham, to the Rev. Nathan A. Seagle, D. D. VAN DUZER-CARMER.—At New York on Thursday, October 21, 1920, Mrs. Fannie Vanderbiit Carmer, formerly of Brooklyn, to Mr. I. O. Van Duzer of 211 St. Paul's av., Tompkinsyille, Staten Island, N. Y.

ber 20, at Greenwich, Com., John David, husband of Nellie Adams Barrett, son of the late John Thorndyke and Alice-Tynan Barrett. Funeral services at his late res-idence, Greenwich, Conn., 3 P. M., Satur-day, October 23. Train leaves Grand Cen-tral 12:51 P. M., Eastern standard time. Please omit flowers.

AUTOMOBILE STOLEN.

REWARD.

REWARD.

Hupmoble, 1919 touring, model R, car number 7161, blue body, black wheels, shows recent repairs; license N. Y. 246249; stolen October B, about 11:30 P. Mr, from in front of 2131 Vyse av., New York city. Communicate with E. B, HOPWOOD, 55 John st.,
New York city. Phone Beekman 8987. funeral later.

CONNOLLY--October 29, William Connolly.
Funeral Stephen Merritt's Chapel, 223 8th
av. near 21st st., Saturday, 9 A. M.

COOLEY.--At her residence, 329 Broadway,
Dobbs Ferry, N. V. on October 29, 1929.
Elizabeth J. Burlinson, widew of Michel
E. Cooley. Funeral services at Sacrad
Heart Courch, Bobbs Ferry, Saturday,
October 23, at 19 A. M. Interment Calvary Cemetery. BANK BOOK.

Lost Tuesday about 3:30 P. M., bank book containing $1,000 and check for $500; also fur coat. Reward if returned to R. DEUTSCHMANN, $98 Union av., N. Y. C.

RAY.—On October 19, 1920, after a linger-ing illness, Julia B., beloved daughter of

NOTICES OF: Births

Engagements Marriages Memorials Confirmations Lodges may be telephoned for publica-ation in THE NEW YORK HERation in THE NEW YORK HER-ALD any time up to midnight for the next day's issue. Call Fitz MARRIED.

DIED.

copy.

WALSH—John David, at Quaker Ridge, New Rochelle, N. Y., October 20, 1920. Funeral services will be held at Presbyterian Church, Harrison, N. Y., Friday, October 22, at 11:30 A. M. Train leaves Grand Central Torninal 9:06 A. M., Eastern standard time. Interment private. Kindly ontit flowers.

WANMAKER—Charles E., on October 21, at St. Luke's Hospital. Services The Funeral Church, Campbell Building, Broad way at 68th st., Saturday, October 23, at 1 P. M.

WIJHELMS—On October 21, 1920. Stells P.

IN MEMORIAM.

ARNETT-In loving memory of my step-father, Richard V. Harnett, died October

